FROM JUDI HEALEY

Rubel Castle is just around the corner -- a week from Saturday! The address is 844 N. Live Oak, Glendora. Our tour begins at 10, but it would be a good idea to plan to arrive 15 minutes early. Just a reminder that sturdy footwear is required...heels or flip flops are not recommended (duh!). Just a reminder -- the castle is not ADA approved, so no wheelchairs, crutches, etc. Most of you have paid, but if you haven't, send $10 to Rose or give it to her that Saturday. She will be writing the check for DKG.

- This is the adult waiver they want us all to sign. (There are two to a page, but obviously you each just need one.) Bring it signed on March 16. I'll bring a bunch in case you forget.
- Looking forward to this! It seems like a one-of-a-kind experience!

At the beginning of our year, I said I would give some kind of award/gift to anyone who participated in my Awesome Hiker idea. People said nice things about the concept, but the response to any attempts for group hikes were not overwhelming! Still -- I want to be true to my word, and I trust any DKG member to be honest. So -- to one and all who went on at least three worthy hikes with me or with anyone else or even alone, please email me the hikes by May 1 and I will give you something at our last meeting of the year.
